

U.S. TREASURY INSPECTOR GENERAL FOR TAX ADMINISTRATION

TIGTA provides independent oversight of the IRS. The mission of the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration's (TIGTA) Office of Investigations is to protect the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) from internal and external threats and corruption that could negatively impact the IRS's ability to administer the nation's tax laws. We detect and deter waste, fraud, and abuse in IRS programs and operations. We also protect the IRS against internal misconduct and corruption as well as external attempts to corrupt or threaten its employees.

TIGTA has consistently been ranked as one of the Best Places To Work in the Federal Government

We offer competitive salaries and excellent benefits including:

- Career Advancement
- Flexible Work Schedules
- Telework
- Paid Sick and Annual Leave
- Retirement and Pension Plans
- Travel Opportunities
- Medical, Vision, and Dental Insurance

For more information visit:
www.tigta.gov

Vacancy Locations

TIGTA maintains offices across the country, offering positions nationwide.*

Vacancy announcements will indicate the location(s) of a given position.*

Who We Are Looking For

Individuals with backgrounds in areas such as:

- Accounting
- Finance
- Law Enforcement
- Forensics
- Internal Affairs

How to Apply

Visit www.usajobs.gov, the official job site of the U.S. Government to create an account, view open positions, and apply.

TIGTA is committed to providing equal opportunity to all applicants and employees, while fostering an inclusive workplace where everyone feels respected and valued.